

Proposed Mediation (Scotland) Bill

Introduction

A proposal for a Bill to increase the use and consistency of mediation services for certain civil cases by establishing a new process of court-initiated mediation that includes an initial mandatory process involving a statutory duty mediator. The consultation runs from 29 May 2019 to 20 August 2019. All those wishing to respond to the consultation are strongly encouraged to enter their responses electronically through this survey. This makes collation of responses much simpler and quicker. However, the option also exists of sending in a separate response (in hard copy or by other electronic means such as e-mail), and details of how to do so are included in the member's consultation document. Questions marked with an asterisk (*) require an answer. All responses must include a name and contact details. Names will only be published if you give us permission, and contact details are never published – but we may use them to contact you if there is a query about your response. If you do not include a name and/or contact details, we may have to disregard your response. Please note that you must complete the survey in order for your response to be accepted. If you don't wish to complete the survey in a single session, you can choose "Save and Continue later" at any point. Whilst you have the option to skip particular questions, you must continue to the end of the survey and press "Submit" to have your response fully recorded. Please ensure you have read the consultation document before responding to any of the questions that follow. In particular, you should read the information contained in the document about how your response will be handled. The consultation document is available here: Consultation document Privacy Notice

I confirm that I have read and understood the Privacy Notice attached to this consultation which explains how my personal data will be used

Aim and approach

Q1. Which of the following best expresses your view of legislating to increase the use and consistency of mediation services for civil cases in Scotland?

Fully supportive

Please explain the reasons for your response.

See attached Submission and supporting documents and video

Details of the proposal

Q2. Which of the following best expresses your view of requiring the parties to a civil court case (unless it is an excluded case) to complete a self-test questionnaire and attend a mandatory Mediation Information Session with a duty mediator?

Fully supportive

Q3. Which of the following cases (if any) do you agree should be excluded from the requirement to complete a self-test questionnaire and attend a Mediation Information Session (tick all that apply)?

None of the above

Please explain the reason for your response.

I think that everyone should be able to access mediation if they want to, regardless of the nature of their dispute.

Q4. Which of the following best expresses your view of giving parties who agree to mediate access to a process that can lead to a Mediation Agreement and, where appropriate, a Mediation Settlement Agreement?

Fully supportive

Q5. Which of the following best expresses your view of giving the Scottish Ministers power to extend the mandatory part of the process (the self-test questionnaire and Mediation Information Session) so that it applies to potential litigants who are yet to go to court?

Fully supportive

Financial implications

Q6. Taking account of both costs and potential savings, what financial impact would you expect the proposed Bill to have on:

	Significant increase in cost	Some increase in cost	Broadly cost-neutral	Some reduction in cost	Significant reduction in cost	Unsure
(a) Government (including court services, legal aid etc.)				X
(b) Businesses				X
(c) Third Sector organisations				X
(d) Mediators and mediation organisations		X
(e) Individuals					X

Please explain the reasons for your response.

See attached Submission

Q7. Are there ways in which the Bill could achieve its aim more cost-effectively (e.g. by reducing costs or increasing savings)?

Yes - see attached Submission - parties should be required to attend a mandatory mediation diet per the Mandatory Mediation Scheme in Ontario, Canada. Mediation would be far more likely to take place which would engender far greater cost savings for civil justice.

Equalities

Q8. What overall impact is the proposed Bill likely to have on equality, taking account of the following protected characteristics (under the Equality Act 2010): age, disability, gender re-assignment, maternity and pregnancy, marriage and civil partnership, race, religion or belief, sex, sexual orientation?

Positive

Q9. In what ways could any negative impact of the proposed Bill on equality be minimised or avoided?

No Response

Sustainability

Q10. Do you consider that the proposed Bill can be delivered sustainably, i.e. without having likely future disproportionate economic, social and/or environmental impacts?

Yes

Please explain the reasons for your response.
Please see Submission.

General

Q11. Do you have any other comments or suggestions on the proposal?

I have emailed my Submission to Margaret Mitchell directly. I am happy for it and the attachments to be published. The attachments include a detailed Research Paper completed by Canadian Solicitors and Mediators who are also happy for it to be published. This details the success of the Mandatory Mediation Scheme in Ontario, Canada over the last 20 years. It also includes email correspondence from Canadian Solicitors and a Video prepared by Ernest Tannis, Grandfather of ADR in Canada.
